Marshall, Dennehey, Warner, Coleman & Goggin (MDWC&G)
Welcomes Aboard Maritime Litigation Attorneys of the Law Firm McDermott & Radzik

Marshall, Dennehey, Warner, Coleman & Goggin is pleased to announce the addition of the maritime litigation attorneys Daniel McDermott and Edward Radzik, as well as seven of their colleagues. This dedicated group of admiralty attorneys will not only enhance MDWC&G's maritime practice, but will also expand its New York City presence. These new attorneys will continue to focus their practice on marine and inland marine litigation, cargo recovery, marine insurance and reinsurance, as well as continued legal support to clients with regard to their risk management needs.

Thomas A. Brophy, President and CEO of MDWC&G stated, "Given the current conditions of the economy and the legal industry specifically, we are extremely proud to be able to expand our New York presence. Moreover, Dan McDermott, Ed Radzik and their colleagues will bring significant experience to our maritime practice locally, nationally, and internationally."

Dan McDermott, a principal of McDermott & Radzik expressed similar feelings, stating, "We are excited about the prospect of bringing our admiralty and maritime practice to Marshall Dennehey. The diversity of practice and extended resources that will be available to us will ensure that we will be better equipped to continue to provide high-quality legal service to our clients."

Founded in 1962, Marshall, Dennehey, Warner, Coleman & Goggin is a leading civil litigation law firm that represents and advises insurers, self-insured businesses, and professionals in a wide range of professional liability, casualty, health law, employment, and workers' compensation matters. With more than 415 attorneys in some 30 distinct practice groups, located in 19 offices throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, and Florida, MDWC&G is uniquely positioned to assist their clients in both avoiding litigation as well as providing them with a vigorous defense in the event of claims and suits made against them.
