OVERVIEW

Stephen is a shareholder in the firm's Casualty Department. He represents clients in motor vehicle accidents, premises liability, products liability, business litigation and professional liability matters. He has significant experience defending attorneys, real estate brokers and agents, accountants and architects against professional liability claims. He also defends financial institutions, debt servicers and buyers, auto finance companies, collection attorneys, student lenders, telecommunication providers, mortgage lenders and credit reporting agencies against claims brought pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Fair Credit Extension Uniformity Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act and state consumer laws in both state and federal court.

Stephen graduated from the William S. Boyd School of Law. Following graduation, he clerked for Judge Abbi Silver, now Nevada Supreme Court Justice, in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Nevada. After completing his clerkship, Stephen joined an insurance defense firm where he focused his practice on legal malpractice, real estate/broker and director and officer cases. He is admitted to practice in all state courts in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as well as the United States District Courts for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the District of New Jersey.
